

Appendix 1: Information to be stated on each invoice

All information should be stated clearly.

Any invoice submitted by you as a supplier should comply with all local legal demands, norms, and regulations.

If the required information is not stated on the invoice, we reserve the right to return it to you. We may ask for a correction, or a credit note and a new invoice, and this may result in longer handling times and delays in payment.

Please make sure your contact details are up to date.
